Concerned about propaganda in the schools

19:54:27 From Brydon to Everyone:

if you want to unravel the vax children, you have to break the whole parent believing vaxxing children to save/protect grandparents/others. Its a lack of trust problem ... but it seems most people don't trust anyone else (nor themselves probably).

It is easier to win Alan Tudge's seat as it is solid blue. Just like it is easier to win solid red seats. UAP just needs to get ahead of the low Lib or Lab candidate and then you can get through with the Lib or Lab losers preferences.

20:03:54 From Louise to Everyone:

Thank you so much @Phil 🙌🙌🙌

This is a bit late, but Catherine Austin Fitts said we all need to pay cash everywhere and if we have a business, change to accept cash only (even though she said that would be hard!) At all costs we need to not let the digital iD get through!
