Really, Laila?!

19:39:11 From Brie to Everyone:

yes

19:39:17 From Laila to Everyone:

Will try find link...

19:39:18 From Brie to Everyone:

see telegram

19:39:29 From Tim Laird to Everyone:

It's still here: <https://www.cdc.gov/vaccinesafety/concerns/autism.html>

19:39:50 From Brie to Everyone:

Robert F Kennedy, Jr. and Del BigTree finally did it!!

They proved that the long held statement that; "VACCINES don't cause autism" is completely false! And they have forced the CDC to remove the statement from their website!

The CDC can no longer claim that VACCINES DO NOT CAUSE AUTISM!

Because they do:

In 1980 autism was 1 in 10,000

1986: Then vax industry lost liability and the massive increase in unsafe childhood immunizations began

1990's: autism 1 in 500

And multi-vial concoctions paired with Tylenol and the ever increasing doses...including neurotoxic aluminum continued...

2018: 1 in 36 children with autism.

2021: American children will get 72 doses of vaccines and there are over 250 in the pipeline.

At this increasing rate, autism is projected to be 1 in 2 children by 2030

19:40:47 From Julie Parker to Everyone:

On this topic, a reminder to watch Andy Wakefield on Charles' Rumle channel - see link <https://rumble.com/v1gdq9v-andrew-wakefield.html> - Andy was one of the first to raise concerns about autism being caused by vaccines back many years ago - and his reputation was destroyed - he speaks of this journey - very interesting wonder, Brie - thanks for this info! The battle works!!!

19:41:14 From Julie Parker to Everyone:

19:41:23 From Vincent to Everyone:

dubious...

19:41:30 From Marta P to Everyone:

The link above go to the page where is still saying that vaccine do not cause autism

19:41:48 From Pasquale to Everyone:

I went to website and it doesn't seem as the reference to vaccine has been taken off.... This is what they say Vaccines do not cause autism.

Some people have had concerns that ASD might be linked to the vaccines children receive, but studies have shown that there is no link between receiving vaccines and developing ASD. The National Academy of Medicine, formerly known as Institute of Medicine, reviewed the safety of 8 vaccines to children and adults. The review found that with rare exceptions, these vaccines are very safe.

19:43:00 From Loz to Everyone:

I'd be interested to know what they are doing via the IVF route in terms of injections/ new medical IVF treatments which may affect the future of these kids.

19:43:09 From Fi R to Everyone:

They might not be forced to remove it from the website

19:56:27 From Julie Parker to Everyone:

Great IDEA TONY! I will add :)

19:56:36 From Jules to Everyone:

Well done Mark! You are doing amazing work!

19:56:50 From Therese to Everyone:

So the good news is that the Centre for Disease Control (CDC) has taken the statement that vaccines do not cause Autism off their web site. !!!!!!!
This is important because the CDC have at least 50 vaccines patents and each staff member gets $150,000.00 bonus per annum per vaccine they have been involved in developing.

19:56:59 From Jules to Everyone:

Good for you Rosie, such a worthwhile cause!
