Credit cards were introduced by the banks as Bankcard in December 1972 just before Christmas (American Express was around but different to credit cards). Then Labor was elected, and this credit structure and labor caused massive inflation in 1973. We still suffer from it, with house prices now 100 times (yes one hundred times) in 2023 compared to 1972. In just half-a-lifetime. Gerry.

19:46:56 From Gerard to Everyone:

I also spoke on Wednesday at an LNP meeting which I chaired, about a Labor aligned Q & A session on ABC TV about superannuation proposed changes. I said the Labor Spokesman said that only 80,000 people are affected by the proposed changes, and this is only .05% of the Australian population. I indicated the figures as: 5% is one person in 20; .5% is one person in 200 people; .05% is one person in 2,000 people. Therefore, this Labor spokesman has suddenly increased Australia's population by multiplying 80,000 by 2,000 to get 160,000,000 or 160 million people in Australia. Labor politicians seem to often mistakenly use rubbery maths.

For those that don't know - My Place Australia, an initiative by Darren Bergwerf, is setting up My Place Towns/Suburbs. There is over 100 groups already set up. Each community group then has subgroups for community action eg councils, health and wellbeing, etc., flyers, etc. Meetings are held within each My Place Suburb/Town for people to attend and get informed.

I can vouch for all the missed diagnosis from the medical officers in public hospital. A lot are pushed by bedside nurses with nurse in-charge. It's Shocking but since the Plandenmic it's much much worse! ❤️

We used Year 10 Victorian distance education so that our son would be up-to-speed with the higher Vic standards (over Qld) so he was ready for Xavier college in year 11 and 12 as a boarder. He graduated yr 12 in 2008 with 7 subjects at age 15; Vic distance education helped this to happen.

Funeral Directors definitely know. My church is used for funerals and there are lots of vaccine deaths. 2 this week which died in their sleep (under 40 years). The Funeral Directors get the real reason for the death, while the parent/families get a made up reason. A father of a young man who has died said that the funeral director said "It is quite common for men under 40 to die in their sleep with no other symptoms". Sure it is since 2021.
