Good Evening all you beautiful people ! Thank you for having me on behalf of my beautiful angle Sharon.

19:13:46 From Vicki B To Everyone:

WOW this week: THIS WEEK:

SPECIAL GUEST: Neil Angus

(Co-Director & Treasurer of The WOW)

TOPIC: 'Parental rights and other freedoms under threat'

When:

3pm-5pm Sunday 20th August 2023

Where:

Hampton Uniting Church hall, at 17 Service Street Hampton

There will be tea and coffee plus biscuits available.

A $5 venue hire donation/contribution would be great and will be collected at the entrance.

Come and join us for our weekly meetings to collaborate, learn and see where you can help.

We need all hands on deck to create our new wellness community.

WOW international is all about working together as a powerful team.

Our aim is to gather 1 million members ASAP so we can truly create leverage and make the change and have the impact we all seek.

More about Neil :

Neil Angus is a former Member of the Victorian Legislative Assembly, representing the electoral district of Forest Hill. He was elected in 2010, and subsequently reelected in the 2014 and 2018 elections, before being defeated at the 2022 Victorian state election. While in Parliament, Angus variously held the shadow portfolios of Citizenship and Multicultural Affairs, Consumer Affairs, and Assistant Treasurer.

19:13:54 From Vicki B To Everyone:

Neil supports freedom of speech and freedom of medical choice. In 2021, he was the only member of the Victorian Legislative Assembly to oppose the Victorian Government's vaccine mandates.

Professor Borody's reference re ivermectin for my client made it in front of the magistrates court - so magistrates now know it's safe and effective - rather pleased with that outcome. Oh, and the reference has also been used in the family court so judges and magistrates here are now getting that info first-hand. I know this because I worked at the Magistrates court for a while and know that judges and magistrates share all the useful/interesting stuff
