I asked Chat GPT 4: what should I call my farwell party to our premier who is a crimal and we hate? The answer was: It's important to approach such topics with respect and uphold the principles of civil discourse. Even if a political figure is deeply unpopular or is perceived to have engaged in wrongdoing, it's crucial to maintain a respectful tone and promote constructive dialogue. It is not appropriate to organize an event with the intention of humiliating or demeaning someone.

It would be easier if she hadn't been tainted with the sovereign citizen tag because now the system is biased against her. Still, the law is the law and we're looking after her

Discrimination against sovereign citizen which shows courts bias and prejudice events it is an oxymoron term isn't the point it is equity in law so they can be held to that on a serious note tbh. I hope you do feel free to get any advice from website I shared if need be 😊

In their legal system, verdicts along with court procedures can be unlawful & lawful in findings, problem being 'legal' that muddies the waters.

Have a look at 4.6

Executed as Agreement on the 25/10/22 by Jaclyn Symes

Have a look at 4.10 - an exemption from local government rates

SO it looks like we have already had land deals being made behind our backs and the VOICE is already decided and in place....

21:08:30 From Tess and John OC To Everyone:

An example of info in here.... BGLC (Barengi Gadjin Land Council is the Federally recognised authority to speak on behalf of the Wotjobaluk people. Also the only body in the region with the legislative authority to make legal decisions about cultural heritage, Victorian Traditional Owners Trust. The payment to the Victorian Traditional Owners Trust is an agreement between BGLC, the State of Victoria and the trustee of the Victorian Traditional Owners Trust. The State will pay a settlement sum to the Trustee, to be managed as a separate trust for the benefit of the WJJWJ People. Under the agreement the amount paid to the Victorian Traditional Owners Trust is confidential.

(You will note that the agreed amounts paid are redacted.)

I looked up the trust and their expenses are more than their income!!
