@Aj I live in a town with a high aboriginal population.... I can tell you where a lot of money goes..... when I was at school, the kids got paid to go to school. They get paid to go to the dentist. They could buy a new car and only have to pay the first 2 payments and then the government would pay the rest. They buy them "farms" , for example a prime property which was a lucerne farm on the banks of the Murrumbidgee River was given to them..... it is now covered in gum suckers, burr, the fences are falling down, steers get out on the highway, totally run down..... they had $350,000 in the local sandhills fund.... gone in a few months..... just hand it out to who ever wanted it..... people that don't live in towns to see what goes on, would never believe it.

The aboriginals in towns like Walgett and Moree are similar to us..... the towns that have full blood aboriginals are the ones that are treated poorly. My nephew is a doctor and works in NT in a closed community..... I used to work in Kununurra WA and there was a lot of issues there.
